GOOD-BYE, JEEMS HARGIS! Take keer yo' self!

JUDGE ROBBINS denies the allegation, but he failed to defy the alligator.

In the great American game of politics Mr. CRAPPS BECKHAM seems to be playing "dirty ball."

GOVERNOR HUGHES, of New York, is still pursuing a course of common sense and straightforward honesty which is puzzling his antagonists as the subtlest of policies.—Baltimore American.

SENATOR FORAKER declares he voted against the Hepburn railroad rate bill because he thought it "unwise, unconstitutional and unnecessary." When we understand that Mr. FORAKER was the only Republican Senator who cast his vote against this most popular measure, and that the only two Democratic Senators to vote against the bill were MORGAN and PETTUS, of Alabama, both of whom are now dead, we see very little constitutional ground for him to stand on or to brag about. There are probably nineteen-twentieths of the total voters in the United States who wanted even a more drastic measure enacted than the one they finally got. FORAKER has been spoiled by his great popularity and the serile adulation heaped upon him by "the boys in the trenches" and the other eager thousands who wanted his assistance in putting in at the city, state and Federal pie counters.

JUDGE CAMPBELL

Of Georgetown, Ohio, Has Thrilling Escape in His Saw Mill

Ripley Bee.

Judge Robert E. Campbell, of Georgetown, received a serious injury last Friday on his farm near Ash Ridge. He had a small saw mill running, and was leaning over the saw to oil the machine while it was in operation when the saw caught his jacket and dragged him down.

He managed to escape with his life, but received a severe gash across his breast and right side, the saw penetrating to his ribs.

He was able to be brought to his home in Georgetown, Monday. His many friends hope that he will speedily recover from his injury.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS

Splendid Meeting Now in Progress at this Beautiful Resort

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 31, 1907.

We are having one of the biggest rains this evening. It is awful, but in spite of rain a fair-sized audience was out this evening to hear Rev. Arthur O'Rear, who delivered a very earnest evangelistic sermon.

The venerable Rev. H. C. Northcutt preached at 10:30 this morning and it was a service that will live long in the hearts of those in attendance. After the preliminaries had been gone through with and Brother Northcutt arose to speak, the whole audience arose and gave him the Chautauqua salute. He delivered a very helpful and inspiring sermon, after which Dr. Aultman conducted the praise service. It was suggested that those who had been converted through Brother Northcutt's ministry be permitted to speak first and those who had been helped by his ministry should next speak.

It was truly a blessed privilege to hear the many testimonies concerning the help that Brother Northcutt had been to their lives. Dr. J. D. Walsh was in charge of the early prae-meeting.

The Young People's meetings have all been placed in charge of Rev. G. W. Bunton. The one held this afternoon under his leadership was an enthusiastic one. He began the meeting by calling on everyone who knew a verse of scripture to repeat it in the meeting, after which an instructive Bible lesson was read in concert; this was followed by two ten minutes talks by Rev. John Cheap and J. H. Richardson. Rev. Bunton has appointed the following persons to act with him as a committee on Young People's work—Rev. J. M. Ackman, Misses Power of Mt. Carmel, Bean of Plumville, and Birdie P. Walsh and Mr. J. H. Richardson of Maysville.

The Rev. C. J. Floyd of Cincinnati, who is a Field Secretary of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, arrived this afternoon and no doubt we will have an opportunity to hear him soon.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Parker of Maysville were visitors among us today. Mr. Parker having come out on business with Mr. I. M. Lane.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Clark of Mt. Carmel attended services with us today. Rev. Clark is Pastor of the M. E. Church South at that place.

The Rev. Mr. Shelton, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Carmel visited the Campgrounds yesterday.

Mrs. J. R. Donahue of Maysville is spending a few days with us.

Mrs. Martha Robinson of Ludlow, Ky., is a recent arrival in Camp.

Mr. W. P. Bowman, the insurance man was called to Slat Lick today on business.

Miss Sallie S. Wood arrived in Camp this evening and is the guest of Miss Esther Hutchins.

Mr. Ikes of Cincinnati, who has been enjoying Camping as the guest of his friend, Mr. John Walsh, Jr., returned home today, Mr. Walsh accompanying him as far as Maysville.

Rev. G. W. Bunton will be able to interest his Maysville friends for some time with the many thrilling experiences he is having this year. He was touring the country yesterday and had the misfortune to fall in the creek twice.

The roof of the Tabernacle is receiving a coat of tar today, in consequence of which, one of our dignified Presiding Elders is in a predicament because his only hat was where the tar leaked through on top of it; however, he says that he was tar-ed of it anyway.

A handsome young business man, who is a junior member of a prominent cigar manufacturing firm of Maysville, who is rustication at this place at the present time, and who has heretofore been proof against the fascinations of the fairer sex, has since coming out here completely succumbed to the artful devices of Cupid, and they do say if all goes well there may be an opportunity for some enterprising person to augment his bank account by launching this worthy young man on the sea of matrimony.

CAPTURE BUFFALO

How the Sight-Seeers Impress the People around Niagara

That Kentucky, and more especially Maysville, is very much on the map is evidenced by the following dispatch from Buffalo, N. Y., taken from The Courier-Journal:

It is seldom that 250 congenial spirits can be gotten together for a month's excursion, but that is what Thomas Stattler, of Maysville, Ky., succeeded in doing. The members of the party came to Buffalo this morning from Niagara Falls, where they have been spending a couple of days. They will spend today in Buffalo and leave tonight by boat for Cleveland, where another day will be spent, and then the South-erners will move on toward home.

Mr. Stattler is a prominent lawyer, and his party is made up of business men and their families, with but few children among them. T. M. French, representative of the American Tobacco Company in the South, and a number of Louisville and Nashville railway officials are also included in the party.

Eight sleepers were required to accommodate the excursionists when they left Cincinnati. They are residents of Maysville, Carlisle, Lexington, Cynthiana, Paris and Falmouth, Ky., and what they do not know about having a good time is not worth learning. While here they stopped at the Genesee Hotel. The Kentuckians made a fine impression in Buffalo.

Of course it is not hard to place "Mr. Stattler," and that the Maysville gang is getting a run for their money goes without saying.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.

The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap.

Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chafing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

Yesterday afternoon the spacious and beautiful lawn surrounding Woodleigh, the suburban home of Mr. J. James Wood, presented an entrancing and kaleidoscopic scene. The occasion was a lawn party given by Mr. Wood in honor of his grandchildren, Master James Needham Parry and Miss Lettia Parry. About seventy-five little folks participated in the merry-making and joys of the afternoon. With joyous laughter the charming little maids and gallant young cavaliers flitted here and yon creating a scene like that unto a fairy land. It was a notable gathering of prim little misses and masters who will cherish in memory dear the pleasures of the day long after they have become sedate and settled in their way.

THE POWERS CASE

Still Hangs Fire—Appointment of New Judge Expected at Once—Powers Will Run For Congress

The trial of Caleb Powers is still "up in the air."

Attorney Franklin says the Commonwealth will be ready for trial whenever another Judge shall have been appointed. The witnesses will have to be summoned again.

Caleb Powers was busily engaged yesterday in his cell at the jail dictating to a stenographer his reply to the opinion of Judge Robbins, in which Powers was severely arraigned. Robbins took up each allegation of Powers in his affidavit and denounced it as utterly a falsehood. Powers will respond in detail to every remark of Robbins directed toward him. Powers and attorneys will clamor for the immediate appointment of a Judge by Governor Beckham.

R. B. Franklin says that he will guarantee a safe return to Indiana for W. S. Taylor if he wants to come to Kentucky and testify in behalf of Caleb Powers. He has been summoned as a witness for the defense.

It is now believed that the trial will be taken up early next week, as the defense wants an immediate hearing and will waive the ten days required to be given in the appointment of a Special Judge.

Misses Mae and Jessie Powers of Augusta are guests of friends here.

The Cynthiana Fair is on this week and is proving a success in every way.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US."

The story of how Marshall Field amassed his great fortune may be told in a few words. He had something to sell and advertised it.

One of the Best Services we Render!

To our fellow-citizens these hot days is being here ready with the right clothes for quick delivery. A man wants to go on a vacation; needs extra trousers or a fresh, thin suit, a new hat or maybe shirts or neckwear---something new for a way from home.

WE ARE HERE WITH THE GOODS!

The best of it is the clothes sold by J. Wesley Lee are like American gold money---good anywhere in the world; but you don't have to go away from home to wear them.
